

On Thursday, 26th May 2016; Per-Olof Hansson led a team of 10 students from Linkoping University-Sweden in a visit to the College of Education and External Studies. The College has a long standing Exchange programme with Linkoping University- Sweden that started in 2012.

The aim of this visit was to provide a platform for the students to tour the college as well as interact with students and also to explore and plan for further collaborations between the 2 universities. During the tour; the students visited the Principal's office, School of Education, the CEES Library and campus grounds.

Since the programme began, about 6 lecturers and 3 Kenyan students from the University of Nairobi have participated in the exchange programme. 6 students and 3 guest Lecturers from Linkoping University have also interacted with the University of Nairobi community.

The University of Nairobi will host 2 students from Linkoping University in August 2016 and 2 more in January 2017.

The guests from Linkoping University were received by Dr. Ngesu; Associate Dean- School of Education and Mr. Isaac Muasya Chairman- Department of Educational Foundations.
